Dear Friends & Travelers,

Fall greetings to you and your families! As you will see in this edition of our newsletter, we have many exciting options for your travels, including our featured group tours to Ireland and Scandinavia. Along with these group tours, customized personal vacations can be created just for you or your group. If you have an idea or dream vacation, we can help.

Remember that now is the best time to book your winter vacations. Take advantage of early booking specials and the best flights by planning ahead. New discount codes are now available which will save you money on just about any destination.

We are excited about our recent addition of a 30 foot stretch limousine. It is available for leisure rentals and special occasions as well as luxury airport transfers. Please call us for details and reservations.

Best regards,

Al and Ryan Walseth
