Oberammergau Passion Play

In 1633, the residents of Oberammergau, located in the Bavarian Alps of Germany, vowed that if God spared them from the plague, they would produce a play depicting the life and death of Jesus, and perform it once every decade. The villagers, believing they had been spared, have kept their vow ever since. In 1634, the world-famous Oberammergau Passion play made it's anticipated debut, depicting a reenactment of the crucifixion of Christ- from His entry into Jerusalem to the Resurrection.

There are still a few tours for the 2020 Passion Play available! Call today to reserve your spot.
